SOUNDINGS ARE being made in the slips between the naval wharves for data in the preparation of specifications for contracts for dredging out the slips to a uniform depth of thirty-five feet. The slips have not been dredged for several years and have filled up several feet from harbor accretions, coal and other debris. The cruiser Pennsylvania, after being loaded with coal, had a little difficulty in steaming out of her slip, as she rested on a hummock of mud just amidships. The wharves are all to be repaired, work already being in progress on wharf No. 2. These wharves have seen hard service since their construction many years ago, and have been sadly in need of repairs for the last two years. The Navy Department will repair the wharves to such an extent that they will be capable of doing service until the docks and wharves are completed at Pearl Harbor. The repair work has reached such a stage on wharf No. 1, that the Crook was sent to the Channel wharf yesterday.

The new gospel vessel, the Hiram Bingham, is now ready to sail for the Gilbert Islands. The little craft is lying at Howard street and is attracting much attention by its trim build. On Tuesday it will start out on its 4500-mile trip. It will go first to Honolulu and then to its point of destination. It belongs to the American Board of Foreign Missions. Captain Alfred C. Walkup is its commander and will sail the little craft in its missionary work about the different islands. On the voyage from this port a crew of six will join the vessel. This includes the captain's son, Alfred W. Walkup, who was born in this city for the past fifteen years. Walkup's daughter Eleanor will go as a passenger.—Chronicle.
